

ENG 1100

CBE

Study Guide

This is an open-book, open-notes exam. The use of a computer to assist you is permitted. Use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) is not permitted.

The CBE (Credit by Exam) for ENG 1100 (English Composition II) consists of two parts.

Part 1. Part 1 consists of 50 short answer questions. All 50 questions ask about APA formatting. You are welcome to use a book or computer to assist you with answering the questions.

Part 2. In Part 2, you will write an argument essay using the Rogerian Method of Argument. At least one resource must be included in the essay. The essay must be in APA format and use APA citations. A list of topic choices will be provided, and you will select the topic you choose from the list. You are welcome to use a computer, but use of AI is not permitted.

The textbook we use in ENG 1100 is an online book and can be found here:
